FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Broome County Clerk Mihalko Announces Harpursville satellite DMV office is reopened for appointments

Broome County Clerk Joseph Mihalko Assemblyman Joseph Angelino (AD 122), and Colesville Town Supervisor Glenn Winsor were at the Eastern Broome Senior Center this morning for the reopening of Broome County DMV's satellite office in Harpursville. At this point, the Harpursville satellite DMV office is servicing customers by appointment only.

"Our residents pay some of the highest property taxes and fees in the nation," said Broome County Clerk Joe Mihalko. "Too often they see their hard earned money go to Albany and never return. When DMV transactions are processed at our local DMVs, we keep 12.7% of the fees locally to fund projects in Broome County. I will do everything I can as County Clerk to encourage people to use our local DMVs and keep those fees in the local economy. We have Saturday hours at the Endicott DMV. We have already reopened the weekly satellite offices in Conklin, Whitney Point and Windsor when those town halls reopened to public access. Today we are reopening our Harpursville satellite office, bringing us to the same level of DMV services we offered before the COVID-19 pandemic hit Broome County. This is just one more way our office strives to increase access for underserved populations in the county."

"It is wonderful news that the Harpursville DMV satellite office is reopening to serve those who live in the more rural parts of Broome County. As we begin to reopen our state, we must be sure that we are placing focus on serving all our New Yorkers, especially underserved regions," said Assemblyman Angelino. "Thank you to County Clerk Mihalko and DMV for making this a possibility again for our community."
