ARTICLE 3
SAVINGS CLAUSE

3.1 If any provision of this Agreement is, or shall, at any time hereafter, be held contrary to law by a court of competent jurisdiction, then such a provision shall not be applicable, performed or enforced, except to the extent permitted by law. All remaining provisions of this Agreement shall continue in effect.

3.2 The waiver of any breach or condition of this Agreement by either party shall not constitute a precedent in the future enforcement of the terms and conditions herein.

ARTICLE 4
MANAGEMENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 The Employer retains and reserves unto itself all rights, powers, authority, duties and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it by the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York and/or the United States of America subject only to any limitations on such rights, powers, authority, duties and responsibilities set forth in this Agreement. It is mutually understood and agreed that the management of operations and the direction of the working forces, including the right to hire, suspend, discharge for proper cause, promote, demote and transfer and other rights to relieve employees from duty because of lack of work or for other proper and legitimate reasons, is vested and reserved in the Employer, subject to the limitations provided by law and/or the terms of this Agreement.

4.2 The exercise of these rights, powers, authority, duties and responsibilities by the Employer and the adoption of such rules, regulations and policies as it may deem necessary will, as they apply to the employees covered by this Agreement and represented by the PBA be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement.

4.3 It is understood by the parties hereto that the Employer shall have reasonable flexibility in interpreting the provisions of this Agreement.

4.4 The PBA agrees for its members that they will individually and collectively perform loyal and efficient work and service and they will use their influence and best efforts to protect the property and interests of the Employer, its good name, and its service to the public.

4.5 The Union agrees for its members that they will individually and collectively perform loyal and efficient work and service and they will use their influence and best efforts to protect the property and interests of the Employer, its good name, and its service to the public.

ARTICLE 5 NO STRIKE PLEDGE

5.1 The PBA affirms that in accordance with the law, it does not assert any right to engage in a strike against the Employer, or to cause, instigate, encourage or condone a strike, or to impose any obligation upon its members to cause, instigate, encourage or condone a strike.

ARTICLE 6 PBA SECURITY AND DUES DEDUCTIONS

6.1 Pledge Against Coercion

6.1.1 The Employer agrees not to interfere with the rights of the employees to become members of the PBA and that there will be no discrimination, interference, restraint, or coercion practiced by the Employer or any Employer representative against any employee because of his/her PBA membership, or because of such employee's activity in any official capacity on behalf of the PBA or other lawful activity, or for any other cause.

6.2 Aid to Other Unions

6.2.1 The Employer agrees there will be no aid, promotion, or financing of any other labor group, association, or organization which purports to engage in collective bargaining, and that any such activities on the part of the Employer or its subordinate staff for any purpose is prohibited.

6.3 Checkoff of PBA Dues and Other Deductions

6.3.1 All PBA members covered by this Agreement shall tender their membership dues to the PBA by signing the authorization for payroll deduction of PBA dues form provided by the PBA.

6.3.2 The Employer agrees that the PBA has the exclusive right of dues deduction and agrees to deduct such PBA membership dues in accordance with the amount certified by the PBA from the pay of those members who have executed such payroll deductions authorization and to maintain such deductions for the term of this Agreement.

The PBA, having been recognized as the exclusive representative of all employees within the bargaining unit, shall be entitled to have deductions made bi-weekly from the pay of each as an agency shop fee in the amount equivalent to PBA dues. Non-members of the PBA shall be entitled, upon request, to a refund of the amount of their agency shop fee deductions used by the PBA in aid of activities or causes of a political or ideological nature.

It is understood and agreed that the provisions of this Article shall be subject to the requirements of applicable law. The PBA agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless from any and all claims, suits, judgments, attachments and from any other form of liability arising out of or resulting from any deduction from wages made in accordance with this Article.

6.3.3 The Employer also agrees that the PBA has the exclusive right of payroll deduction of premiums for all PBA sponsored insurance programs, and will make a separate deduction for such insurance programs which are currently available or will become available to PBA members. The Employer will maintain such deductions in accordance with the terms and conditions appearing on the appropriate authorization form provided by the PBA or appropriate agency approved by the PBA.

6.3.4 Payroll deductions of PBA dues and PBA sponsored insurance programs authorized by the employees shall become effective at the date that the appropriate form, if any, designates, or, if none, when it is signed by the employee. All deductions shall commence no later than the beginning of the payroll period, if practicable.

6.3.5 The aggregate totals of all PBA dues deductions and the aggregate totals of all insurance deductions shall be remitted separately on a regular monthly basis together with a list of names of those employees from whom such deductions have been made to:

6.3.6 Any changes in the amount of PBA dues and insurance fees to be deducted must be certified by the PBA in writing and forwarded to the Employer thirty (30) days prior to implementation. Where an employee has no earnings from a paycheck from which deductions have to be made, the Employer shall not be responsible for collecting the dues and any insurance premiums.

6.4 Notification of New Employees

6.4.1 The Employer agrees to submit to the PBA each month a list of any new employees hired, the activity in which they are working or will work, their home address, the status of their employment as to whether they are temporary, seasonal, federally funded, or permanent.

6.5 Access to Premises

6.5.1 The Employer agrees to permit representatives of the PBA, on an exclusive basis, to enter the premises of the Employer with prior approval of the Sheriff or his/her designated representative for the discussion of working conditions, explanation of PBA membership, service and programs with employees, and communicating with other officers and stewards of the PBA. Such approval shall not be unreasonably denied.

6.5.2 The Employer shall provide meeting space to the PBA upon request from the President of the PBA or his/her designee in buildings owned by the Employer subject to availability as determined by the Employer, provided that the PBA agrees to reimburse the Employer for any additional expenses incurred by the Employer which would not have incurred had the space not been available.

6.6 Bulletin Boards

6.6.1 The Employer agrees to provide 3' X 4' bulletin boards for the use of the PBA to post notices and other PBA information. PBA bulletin boards will be located at:

- a) Male Locker Room, Highway Patrol
- b) Female Locker Room, Highway Patrol

All PBA postings shall be initialed by the PBA President and have a time limit established. PBA bulletin boards shall be separate and distinct from management boards. The PBA agrees to not post any material, which is profane or derogatory to any individual, or post any political material issued by an individual, or by a candidate for public office, or issued by a political party. The above referenced material shall not be posted on any Employer property.

6.7 Printing and Distribution of Agreement

6.7.1 The Employer agrees to provide a copy of this Agreement to all employees in the bargaining unit, the cost to be shared equally by the Employer and the PBA.

6.8 PBA Activities on Employer's Time and Premises

6.8.1 The Employer agrees that during working hours and for reasonable periods of time on the Employer's premises no more than three (3) employees designated as PBA representatives, who shall be known as stewards, and whose names have been submitted to the Sheriff in writing by the PBA, shall be permitted to engage in the following activities without loss of time or pay:

- post PBA notices,
- distribute PBA literature,
- transmit communication authorized by the local PBA or its officers to the Employer or its representatives,
- consult with the Employer, its representative, local PBA officers, or other PBA representatives concerning the enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement,
- sign up employees into the PBA.

6.8.2 Nothing in this section shall be construed to be a limitation upon any lawful and other legitimate PBA activity during non-working hours.

6.8.3 PBA representatives shall provide to the Sheriff on a monthly basis a report of such activities and the amount of time engaged in each.

6.9 Contract Negotiations

6.9.1 The Employer will give time off with no loss of time or pay for four (4) employee members of the PBA contract negotiating committee to participate in contract negotiations. The time off may be given for rest purposes to any employee committee member whose regular work hours do not coincide with the negotiating hours, such time off to be granted without loss of pay. It is understood and agreed that employees who are not members of the negotiating committee, but who are observers, shall not be entitled to time off with pay.

6.10 PBA Business Leave

6.10.1 The Employer agrees to permit members of the PBA who are elected or designated to attend any convention, conference, meeting or seminars designated by the PBA or its affiliates to attend such functions without loss of time or pay, up to a maximum of twenty (20) days a year, including travel time, provided that a request for such leave is made by the PBA to the Sheriff or designee, with a copy to the Personnel Officer, no less than five (5) work days prior to the date that the function is scheduled.

6.10.2 In addition to the above, employees who are members of the PBA's Executive Board shall be permitted to attend such meetings if they fall during their regular work hours without loss of time or pay, provided the request for such time off is made by the PBA no later than five (5) work days prior to the date the particular meeting is to be held, such time to be deducted from the twenty (20) days set forth in 6.10.1.

6.10.3 An employee elected to the office of the President of the PBA shall be granted a reasonable amount of time off, as determined by the Sheriff, to carry out the functions of his/her office, without loss of time or pay, for the period of his/her term of office. Such time off shall be requested of the Sheriff or designee in writing on at least twenty-four (24) hours notice. The President shall provide the Sheriff on a monthly basis the amount of time spent during working hours conducting PBA business.

6.11 Joint Labor Relations Committee

6.11.1 To facilitate communications between the parties and to promote a climate conducive to constructive employee relations, a joint labor relations committee shall be established to discuss problems of mutual concern. The size of the committee shall be limited to the least number of representatives to accomplish its objectives; however, in no case shall there be more than three (3) persons representing the PBA. Committee meetings may be held upon the request of either party once each month, but no less than once every three (3) months. The time, date, and location for such meetings shall be made in advance with an agenda being submitted at least one week prior to the mutually agreed upon date. The meeting shall be held at reasonable hours mutually agreed upon by the parties. Employee committee members acting on behalf of the PBA shall suffer no loss of time or pay as a result of attending such meetings during their regular work hours.

6.11.2 Labor relations committee meetings shall be held in good faith. While this committee shall have no power to contravene any provisions of this Agreement, the parties may issue letters of understanding and minutes of meetings at which these understandings were made. Any disagreements growing out of the implementation of memorandum or letters of understanding, or violations thereof, shall be subject to the grievance procedure. The Employer shall provide minutes of the meeting.

6.12 Joint Safety Committee

6.12.1 The Employer and the PBA agree to establish a joint safety committee consisting of an equal number of Employer and PBA representatives, the total number of which shall be no more than three (3) members. This committee shall promote safety among the employees by discussing accident prevention and developing suitable corrective measures. The Employer shall provide minutes of the meeting.

6.13 Joint Rules and Regulations Committee

6.13.1 The Office of the Sheriff agrees that all present and proposed work rules and regulations of the Sheriff shall be reviewed by a joint committee comprised of no more than three (3) employees designated by the PBA and a comparable number designated by the Sheriff. The Sheriff or designee has the sole right to make final determinations on all rules and regulations following review by the Committee. After such rules and regulations are finalized, they shall be reduced to writing and distributed to all employees. Nothing herein shall be construed to abridge the authority of the Sheriff to promulgate interim orders.

6.13.2 It is understood and agreed that until any new work rules and regulations are adopted by the Employer all employees shall comply with any existing work rule or regulation and orders promulgated by the Sheriff that is not in conflict with the terms of this Agreement, provided they are uniformly applied and uniformly enforced. Any dispute over the reasonableness of and the manner of application of any new rule or regulation will be subject to the grievance procedure. No interim order shall be effective for a period of more than twelve (12) months.

ARTICLE 7 GRIEVANCES AND ARBITRATION

7.1 General

7.1.1 It is the intent of this Article to provide an orderly and expeditious procedure for the processing and settlement of all grievances of employees and disputes between the PBA and the Employer over matters for which no other procedure is provided by this Agreement. It is agreed, therefore, that should any grievance or dispute occur over the meaning, application, or interpretation of the express terms of this Agreement, excluding such matters pertaining to additions of new positions or the discontinuance of existing positions, retirement benefits, disciplinary actions, or transfer or assignment of employees, the grievance and arbitration procedure set forth in the appropriate sections of this Article shall be the only manner by which such grievances or disputes may be settled.

7.1.2 It is understood that no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to require the PBA to process such grievance to any stage of the grievance procedure if the PBA does not consider the grievance to be with merit.

7.2 Matters Relevant to the Grievance Procedure

7.2.1 The time limits set forth in this Article shall be strictly adhered to; however, they may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties in writing.

7.2.2 Any step of the grievance procedure may be waived by mutual agreement in writing, except that in case of group or policy type grievances, the grievance may be submitted directly to the Sheriff.

7.3 PBA Stewards

7.3.1 Employees selected by the PBA to act as PBA representatives shall be known as stewards. The names of employees selected as stewards and the names of other PBA officers and representatives who may also represent employees shall be certified in writing to the Employer by the PBA. Subject to the provisions of 6.8.1 of the Agreement, such PBA stewards and authorized PBA officers shall have the right to investigate and process grievances during their regular working hours without loss of time or pay; however, such employees must notify their immediate supervisor prior to leaving their work assignment.

7.4 Rights of the Parties

7.4.1 Either party shall have access upon request to any written statements or records, which will be presented as evidence by the other party at any arbitration hearing provided by this Agreement in advance of the date of such hearing. In the event either party does not have sufficient time to review such evidence, the hearing shall be adjourned to a later date at the request of either party.

7.4.2 Aggrieved employees, the PBA's representatives, and necessary witnesses shall not suffer any loss of time or pay, or be required to charge leave credits as the result of processing or investigating grievances, or attending grievance hearings during their regular working hours. Reasonable and necessary time spent in processing and investigating grievances, including time spent at arbitration proceedings and any other proceedings that has to do with the administration of this Agreement, during such employees' regular working hours, shall be considered as time worked for all purposes. Travel time necessary shall be treated in the same manner. It is understood and agreed that all grievance hearings shall be scheduled to be held during such employees' regular working hours, or if not possible, as close to their regular work shift as is reasonably possible.

7.4.3 An employee shall not be coerced or intimidated, or suffer any reprisal, either directly or indirectly, including changes that may adversely affect his hours, wages, or working conditions, as the result of his/her exercising of rights guaranteed by this Agreement.

7.4.4 Staff representatives of the PBA may participate at any step of the grievance procedure.

7.5 Grievance Procedure Steps

Step 1 The PBA President or grievance committee of the PBA, with or without the aggrieved employee shall orally present the grievance to the Undersheriff, who shall render his/her decision orally or in writing to the PBA President, or grievance committee of the PBA, within two (2) work days after its presentation to him/her. Such grievance must have been presented at the earliest possible time after its occurrence, but in any event within thirty (30) calendar days of knowledge of its occurrence.

Step 2 If the grievance is not settled at Step 1, the PBA President or his/her designee, or grievance committee of the PBA, shall reduce the matter to writing on a grievance form provided by the PBA and signed by the aggrieved employee, setting forth the facts of the grievance and relief sought, and submit the grievance to the Sheriff within five (5) work days of the receipt of the Undersheriffs decision, or of the date that such decision was due at Step 1. The Sheriff shall investigate the matter, which may include a meeting with the PBA President or his/her designee and the PBA steward, or other authorized representative of the PBA, however, he/she shall, within five (5) work days of receipt of the grievance, render his/her decision in writing to the PBA President or grievance committee of the PBA, whichever the case may be.

Step 3 If the grievance still remains unresolved at Step 2 within the time limits set forth above, or no answer is forthcoming, the grievance may, within ten (10) work days of the date such answer is received or should have been due, be submitted by the PBA President or grievance committee to the Personnel Officer or designee who shall hold a meeting with the PBA grievance committee not later than five (5) work days after the date of receipt of the grievance. For the purpose of this procedure, the PBA grievance committee will consist of no more than three (3) members of the grievance committee, which shall automatically include the PBA President. Any answer or decision on the grievance shall be in writing and be transmitted to the PBA President or his/her designee within five (5) workdays after the date that such meeting was held.

Step 4 If the PBA is not satisfied with the decision at Step 3, or no decision is forthcoming, it may, within fifteen (15) work days of receipt of the Step 3 answer or from the date that such answer would have been due, refer the matter to the arbitration step in the manner set forth in Section 7.6 below.

7.6 Arbitration Procedure

7.6.1 When an unresolved grievance is submitted to arbitration, such notice of demand for arbitration together with a copy of the grievance shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the Personnel Officer for Broome County and the Sheriff. The selection of the arbitrator, who will make the final determination of the grievance, shall be made by the parties utilizing the procedures of the Public Employment Relations Board.

7.6.2 The arbitrator shall be requested to render a decision within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date of the arbitration hearing, or fifteen (15) calendar days of the submission date of any written briefs, should they be requested by either of the parties or the arbitrator. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon all the parties; however, the arbitrator shall not have the power to amend, modify, or delete any provision of this Agreement.

7.6.3 The expenses and the fees of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties.

ARTICLE 8 DISCIPLINE

8.1 Exercise of Rights

8.1.1 No employee shall be disciplined or otherwise removed except in accordance with the provisions of this Article. It is understood and agreed that any employee against whom a disciplinary action or measure is proposed may elect to follow Section 75 and 76 of the Civil Service Law or the alternate disciplinary appeals procedure set forth in this Article in lieu thereof. An employee's selection of one procedure shall preclude the use of the other, and the rights of the use of the other shall be deemed waived.

8.1.2 Disciplinary actions or measures proposed for imposition against employees shall be limited to the following: oral reprimand, written reprimand, suspension, reduction in rank, fine, loss of leave credits, and discharge. It is understood and agreed that if the Employer has any reason to orally reprimand an employee, it shall be done in a manner that will not duly embarrass the employee before other employees or the public, and that all discipline shall be applied in a progressive manner.

8.1.3 Disciplinary actions or measures may be taken against employees only for misconduct or incompetence. Whenever the Employer seeks imposition of a disciplinary action or measure against an employee, the Employer shall notify the employee and the PBA President in writing of the specific act of misconduct and/or incompetence the employee is alleged to have committed and the proposed penalty. The written notification shall also contain a detailed description of the charges and specifications, which shall include dates, times and places. The notification to the PBA shall be sent at the same time the notice is sent to the employee, or if hand delivered to the employee, within twenty-four (24) hours of the time that the notice is given to the employee.

8.1.4 It is understood and agreed that any employee covered by this Agreement shall be entitled to PBA representation or his/her own attorney at his/her own expense at any stage of a disciplinary proceeding, whether pursuant to Section 75 or the alternate appeals procedure of this Agreement, including any meeting or investigatory conference held where the outcome may result in a disciplinary action.

8.1.5 No employee shall be requested to sign any statement of admission of guilt to be used in a disciplinary proceeding without being advised of the right to have PBA representation present, and permitting a reasonable period of time for such representation to present itself, if such representation is requested. No employee shall be required to take a polygraph examination.

8.1.6 An employee may be suspended without pay for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days prior to his/her instituting an appeal under the appropriate section of this Article, only if the Employer determines there is probable cause to believe that the continued presence of the employee on his/her job assignment represents an actual danger to other persons or property or would severely interfere with the operations of the Department.

8.2 Alternate Disciplinary Appeals Procedure

8.2.1 Any employee against whom disciplinary charges are brought shall have the right to appeal such action. Upon receipt of such notification, an employee shall have ten (10) work days to file with the Sheriff a written response to the charges, a copy of which shall be sent to the PBA. The employee, in his/her response, may deny the charges, may admit to the charges and accept the penalty proposed, or admit the charges but reject the penalty proposed. Should the employee deny the charges, or admit the charges but reject the penalty proposed, he/she shall also include in the response whether he/she desires to process the matter under Section 75 and 76 of the Civil Service Law or the PBA Procedures set forth in this Article. In addition, the employee will indicate whether he/she will be represented by the PBA or his/her own private attorney.

8.2.2 In any case where an employee, in his/her response to the charges, either denies the charges brought against him/her or disagrees with the penalty proposed, a meeting shall be convened by the Sheriff within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the response, such meeting to include the PBA President or his/her designee and the employee. Unless the matter is settled at the meeting, the Sheriff shall give his decision in writing within five (5) calendar days of the date the meeting was held.

8.2.3 Disciplinary matters may be settled at any time following the service of a notification of discipline. The terms of any settlement proposed shall be reduced to writing. An employee offered such a settlement shall be given a reasonable opportunity to consult with his/her PBA representative or his/her own attorney as well as to have him/her present at the time he/she executes such settlement. Both the employee and the PBA representative shall be provided with copies of the settlement at the time such settlement is made.

8.2.4 If a disciplinary matter is not settled or otherwise resolved, the employee may, within ten (10) work days of receipt of the Sheriff's response, appeal to arbitration as provided for under Article 7.6 of this Agreement, or request a Civil Service hearing, whichever procedure he/she had previously elected.

8.2.5 Disciplinary matters that are not otherwise settled or resolved and which the employee desires to move to arbitration shall be entitled to an expedited procedure for the selection of a disciplinary arbitrator to hear such matters. Each member of the panel shall be assigned a number in rotation, and in the event of a disciplinary matter, the first arbitrator on the panel in the order of appearance who is available to conduct a hearing within ten (10) calendar days shall serve as the arbitrator.

8.2.6 In accordance with the timetable set forth above, disciplinary arbitrators shall be required to render a decision within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the close of the hearing, or within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of a transcript, if either party elects to have such a transcript made. It is understood, however, that any party wishing to have such a transcript made of the hearing may provide for one at its own expense, but shall provide copies to both the arbitrator and the other party.

8.2.7 Disciplinary arbitrators shall confine themselves to determinations of guilt or innocence and whether a proposed penalty or punishment is appropriate. The burden of proof shall rest with the Employer. The decision of the disciplinary arbitrator shall be served upon the employee, the Sheriff, and the PBA, if the employee has chosen to be represented by the PBA, and shall be final and binding as to the question of guilt or innocence. The disciplinary arbitrator shall also recommend a penalty or punishment to be imposed in the event of a finding of guilt, including whether there was probable cause for a summary suspension. Upon receipt of the decision of the disciplinary arbitrator, the Sheriff shall determine the penalty or punishment to be imposed; however, should such determination be more than the recommendation of the disciplinary arbitrator, the employee may seek review of such determination pursuant to Article 78 of the CPLR, but solely upon the grounds that the penalty or punishment the Sheriff seeks to impose is excessive.

8.2.8 No recording devices of any kind shall be used during any disciplinary proceedings unless the use of such device is agreed upon by the parties and each party receives a copy of the tape.

8.2.9 All fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be divided equally between the Employer and the PBA, or the employee and the Employer, if not represented by the PBA.

8.3 Limitations

8.3.1 No employee shall be brought up on charges or be disciplined for acts which occurred more than one (1) year prior to the service of such notification of discipline, except acts which would constitute a crime.

8.4 PBA's Rights on Disciplinary Matters

8.4.1 The PBA steward, and the PBA President or his/her designee, as well as the disciplined employee and necessary employee witnesses, shall suffer no loss of time or pay, or be required to charge any accrued leave credits during such employee's regular working hours, to attend disciplinary hearings and arbitration proceedings. Reasonable and necessary time spent by the PBA steward and/or the PBA President or his/her designee in processing and investigating a disciplinary matter, during such employee's regular working hours shall also be considered as time worked for all purposes with no loss in time or pay or accrued leave credits.

8.4.2 When representing an employee in a disciplinary matter, the PBA shall be entitled to copies of all written reports and records in the custody of the Employer which will be relied upon by the Employer in pursuing the charges against the employee and the issuing of a penalty within ten (10) calendar days of demand for such by the PBA.

8.4.3 PBA representatives may be present and participate at disciplinary grievance meetings, Section 75 hearings, and arbitration proceedings.

8.5 Disciplinary Transfers

8.5.1 Work shifts, job assignments, transfers or re-assignments to other units shall not be made for the purpose of imposing discipline, except in cases where criminal charges are pending against an employee, the effect of which, in the opinion of the Sheriff, may seriously affect the employee's ability to carry out the responsibility of his/her job if he/she were allowed to remain on that job.

8.6 Personnel Records

8.6.1 An employee, upon written request to the Sheriff or his/her designee, shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review his/her official personnel file maintained by the Office of the Sheriff. This file shall contain his/her original application for employment and any and all job evaluations, commendations, disciplinary actions, if any, and any other record of actions, which have taken place during his/her employment with the Office of the Sheriff. Upon review of the file, an employee may request and shall be provided with copies of all documents, which he/she had not previously been given. Any problems with counseling memoranda will be referred to the Labor Management Committee.

8.6.2 No letter of criticism, poor evaluation, disciplinary action, or any other document, which could effect an employee's job security, may be placed in an employee's official personnel file without the employee first having an opportunity to review such action. Should an employee, upon review of such documents, disagree with all or part of any such document, he/she shall have the right to seek removal of any part or all of the document by filing a grievance under the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure of this Agreement.

8.7 Either party shall have access upon request to any written statements or records, which will be presented as evidence by the other party at any arbitration hearing provided by this Agreement in advance of the date of such hearing. In the event either party does not have sufficient time to review such evidence, the hearing shall be adjourned to a later date at the request of either party.

ARTICLE 9 SENIORITY

9.1 Definition of Seniority

9.1.1 For the purposes of any bidding required by this Agreement only, seniority shall mean an employee's total length of service in his/her job classification or rank which shall include all temporary and provisional service in the classification or rank.

9.2 Probationary Employees

9.2.1 Every new employee who is hired to fill a position on a permanent basis shall be subject to a probationary period of not more than seventy-eight (78) weeks unless a longer period is permitted by the Civil Service Law, in addition to any mandatory training period. Upon the satisfactory completion of the probationary period, such employee shall be notified in writing of such successful completion, and he/she shall be entered on the seniority list retroactive to his/her initial date of hire.

9.2.2 While an employee is serving his/her probationary period, but after no less than eight (8) weeks, exclusive of the mandated training period, the Employer must notify such probationary employee of any weakness that may have been observed in such employee's work which, if not corrected, could be cause to terminate the employee's service prior to the expiration of his/her probationary period. Such notification shall be in writing, shall indicate that his/her work needs improvement, and that his/her supervisor will counsel him/her on this matter. A copy of this notification shall be forwarded to the PBA. Failure of the Employer to provide this notice shall not prevent the Employer from exercising any rights under the Agreement, law, rule or regulation with respect to the probationary employee.

9.3 Seniority Lists

9.3.1 Upon request once a year, the Employer shall furnish to the PBA an up-to-date seniority list showing the continuous service of each permanent employee. The seniority list will show the names of such employees, their job classification, and their last date of hire.

9.4 Breaks in Continuous Service

9.4.2 An employee's seniority will continue to accrue during any period of absence brought about as a result of a service incurred disability or any other paid leave. Unpaid leaves of absence and disciplinary suspension greater than ten (10) days shall not cancel an employee's seniority, but such time shall not be counted.

The posting shall include such information as the job title, nature of the job, the rate of pay, and what special job requirements, if any, employees must meet in order to qualify. Such notification shall be posted for no less than fourteen (14) calendar days.

Further, if an assignment opportunity occurs, the Sheriff shall post such opportunity for a period of fourteen (14) calendar days. The posting shall include assignment information and requirements. The Sheriff shall select, at his/her discretion, from those employees who have applied in writing to fill the vacancy. The Sheriff's decision shall be non-arbitrable.

3. Upon the exhaustion of the promotional list and the absence of any other established Civil Service eligibility list, provisional appointments to fill such competitive positions with the bargaining unit shall be made from among other employees who have indicated a desire to be considered for those positions in accordance with the procedures set forth in Article 10.1 of this Agreement,

10.6.2 Such lay-off shall be accomplished by laying off first all provisional employees in the inverse order of seniority and secondly, all probationary employees in the inverse order of seniority. If further lay-offs are necessary, then permanent employees shall be laid off in classification in the inverse order of their seniority, subject only to the appropriate provisions of State law applicable to veterans and to any other provisions of this Agreement that may apply.

Such leave, not to exceed ten (10) work days in any one calendar year, may be used also in the event of illness in the immediate family of such employee (the employee's spouse, parent, children, grandparents) where their presence is necessary. When the absence is pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act, the employee shall be required to use accumulated sick leave. In such cases the above ten (10) day limitation shall not apply.

When an employee is absent more than three (3) consecutive days, the Employer may require, within three (3) work days of the employee's return to work, a statement from the employee's physician indicating the nature of the illness and the employee's fitness to return to work. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Employer has reason to believe that an employee is abusing his/her sick leave privilege, he/she may require proof of illness prior to charging any absence to sick leave credits.

22.1.5 In the event the Employer has good reason to believe that an employee is no longer physically able to continue in his/her regular duties, the Employer may require a full physical examination by the physician elected by the Employer and at the Employer's expense. Should a disagreement arise between the Employer's physician and the employee's physician over the physical fitness of an employee to continue in his/her job duties, then a third physician, mutually agreed upon and selected by the two (2) physicians, shall make the final determination. The full cost of the service of the third physician shall be shared equally by the Employer and the employee.

Such days shall be forwarded to the PBA in January of each year.

Such employees shall continue receiving their full salaries with no deductions being made from sick leave or any other leave credits they may have accrued for the duration of their absence, or until they are adjudged to be permanently unable to resume their normal duties and are eligible for a disability retirement. It is understood that any dispute arising over whether such employees have been incapacitated as the result of a job related injury or illness shall not be subject to the grievance procedure of this Agreement, but be processed in accordance with the law with any final determination being made by the appropriate authority.

3. Upon exhausting all leave under (1) and (2) above, may be allowed an unpaid leave of absence for a period up to one (1) year.

23.1.3 If it is subsequently determined that any employee covered by this Agreement was not entitled to coverage under 207(c) above without charge to leave credits for any period for which such coverage was granted as the result of it being found that the disability claimed from such injury or illness was not job related, or was primarily due to some pre-existing medical condition, because the claim for benefit was successfully controverted by the Employer, such employee shall be required to make reimbursement for such paid leave from current or subsequent accumulations of leave credits at a rate and in a manner determined by the Employer.

23.1.4 Employees who draw leave credits as provided in 23.1.2 (1) and (2) shall be entitled to restoration of such credits, including those used for absences of less than one (1) full day, as are used during a period of absence for which an award of compensation has been made and credited to the Employer as reimbursement for wages paid.
