Nearby Residents Urged to Check Ring Cameras, Ancillary Buildings and Sheds

(TOWN OF UNION, NY) As the Broome County Sheriff's Office continues its search for a missing Endicott man, investigators are asking residents in the nearby area to check their security and doorbell cameras as well as buildings on their property for leads on his location.

Joseph Maine, 48 yrs. old of Endicott, NY reportedly left his house on foot on the evening of Saturday, April 19, 2025 and never returned home. Maine was last seen around 8:38 PM on April 19th at 700 North McKinley Ave. in the Town of Union.

Over the past two days, the Broome County Sheriff's Office has conducted grid searches of the surrounding neighborhood, including the Brixius Creek area utilizing BCSO personnel, UAV aerial drones and the Marine Unit, but so far have not found evidence of Maine's whereabouts as they attempt to locate him, ensure his safety, and reconnect him with his family.

Reportedly diabetic, Maine may not have taken his medication recently and may be exhibiting confused behavior.

Maine is described as a White Male, standing 6'0" and weighing approximately 167 lbs. He was last seen wearing a light grey sweatshirt, dark grey sweatpants, a black baseball cap with a fishhook hanging from it, and black sneakers with "FUBU" in red lettering.

Neighbors in the surrounding mile radius of 700 North McKinley Ave are asked to check their Ring doorbell cameras and security cameras for any evidence of Maine walking through their property. Residents are also urged to check their sheds, garages or ancillary buildings where Maine might have taken shelter.
